

Teacher's Guide: The Two Kings All Year

How do you use the puppets? Just a few minutes

- Act out a small situation from preschool life. The Bad King says his piece, and the Good King answers.
- Ask the children: "Who should we listen to?" and let them suggest an idea, like David, who invited his friends inside.
- Always end with the Good King winning, and with praise for the child who suggested the idea.

Situations from preschool life

- Clean-up: "Leave it, someone else will clean up" / "Together we finish fast!"
- Taking turns: "Push, be first" / "We wait, your turn will come too"
- Sharing: "It's only yours!" / "Let's play together"
- Saying sorry: "He started it!" / "We say sorry and feel good"
- Food: "Throw away your sandwich" / "We eat and say a brachah"
- Fights: "Hit him back!" / "We tell the teacher and calm down"

Through the holidays

- Rosh Hashanah: What will we do better this year?
- Sukkot: Inviting a guest, even someone who isn't my friend
- Chanukah: Whose turn is it with the dreidel?
- Tu B'Shvat: Waiting for the brachah before eating
- Purim: Keep all the candy, or give mishloach manot?
- Pesach: Help clean, or keep playing?
- Lag BaOmer: Playing nicely by the bonfire
- Shabbat: Helping set the table

The pages in this kit

- "Who am I listening to?" card: hold it up instead of scolding. The child understands on their own.
- Crown chart: a jewel for every good choice. A full crown = a Good King certificate and a photo with the puppets for the parents.
- Paper crown, stick puppets, "Who said it?", "What would you do?" and the Road to the Palace game for preschool. Writing page for 1st grade.

Who Said It?

Draw a line from each bubble to the king who said it

Name: _____

David, stay with the baby.
Mommy is counting on you!

Go play outside!
Mommy will never even know...

Share your new toy with your friend.

It's only yours!
Don't give it to anyone!

Say "I'm sorry" – you'll feel so much better.

Just a little more TV...
Don't go to sleep!

First we help Mommy set the table.

Push ahead, and you'll be first in line!

What Would You Do?

Name: _____

Mommy asked David to watch his baby sister.

Suddenly his friends call out: "Come play outside!"

The Bad King says: "Go!"

The Good King says: "Think of an idea!"

My idea – draw it here:

The Good King

Great job! You chose right!

The Bad King

Wait… who am I listening to?

The Road to the Good King's Palace

How to play

2–4 players, a die, and a coin or bottle cap for each player. Roll the die and move ahead.

Good King: tell something good you did today – forward 2

Bad King: tell how you beat him – back 2

The first one to reach the palace wins!

Start

2 — 3 — Forward 2 — 5 — 6 — Back 2

7 — 8 — Forward 2 — 10 — 11 — Back 2

12 — 13 — 14 — Forward 2 — 16 — Back 2 — 18

19 — 20 — Forward 2 — 21 — 22 — Back 2 — 23

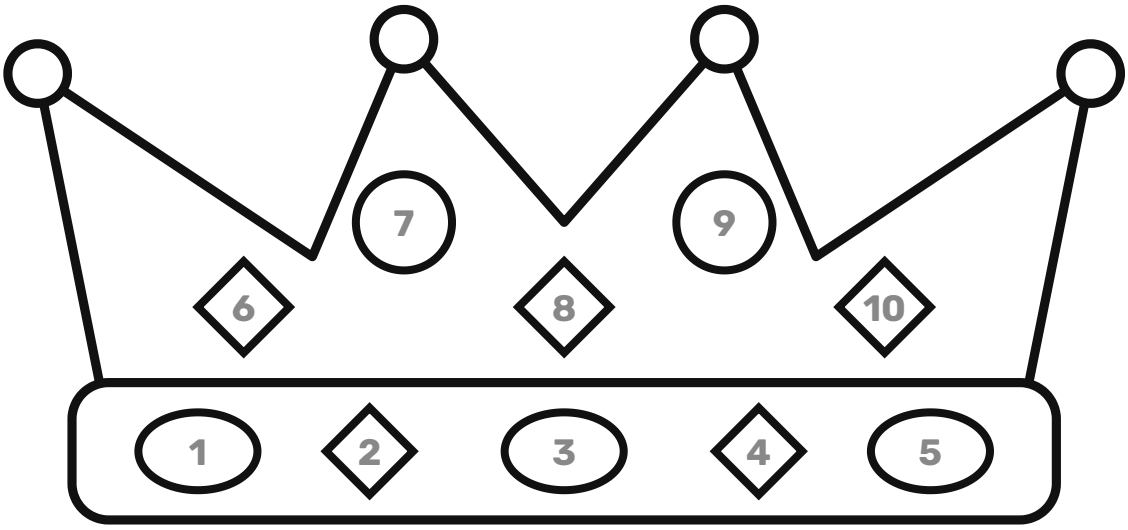

You reached the palace!
